

SOP-001: Equipment Cleaning

This is a long paragraph that should wrap across multiple lines. It describes the standard procedure for cleaning laboratory equipment after use. All personnel must follow these steps to ensure compliance with safety regulations and maintain proper hygiene standards in the workplace.

This is a second paragraph that is also multi-line. It covers the scope of the procedure and explains which departments and equipment types are covered under this standard operating procedure document.